5.0 out of 5 stars A River of Angry Dogs is a must read. 4 November 2009 - Published on Amazon.com. Format: Hardcover. This memoir is so incredibly gripping. It tugs on every emotion and grabs your heart and soul throughout the book. This is a story of the Holocaust that for me opened a door into a world that no longer exists and a journey I hope no one ever has to experience again. As a young Jewish teenager she escaped the horrors of German-occupied Poland with only her natural creativity, a rebellious spirit and a talent for good fortune to rely on. Of the millions of words written about WWII, few come from women, and even fewer recount such adventure. Spared the experience of the ghetto and the concentration camp that claimed most of her family, Mira's story is a life-affirming account of a life lived to the full, and a meditation on survival and coincidence, that pays homage to other people's Her memoir The River Of Angry Dogs has recently been published.
