

Surrey Research Insight Deposit Agreement

Agreement to deposit your paper and give permission to make it available on open access: please note you are granting your permission not your publisher's.

Covered Work

I would like to deposit my material in the open access repository of the University of Surrey (Surrey Research Insight Open Access). Research referred to below as "Work" is covered by this agreement and when I deposit my Work in the future, whether personally or through an assistant or other agent, I agree to the following:

Non-exclusive Rights

Rights granted to SRI Open Access through this agreement are entirely non-exclusive. I am free to publish the Work in its present version or future versions elsewhere. I agree that SRI Open Access may, without changing content, translate the Work to any medium or format for the purpose of secure storage.

Deposit in SRI Open Access

I understand that work deposited in SRI Open Access will be accessible to a wide variety of people and institutions - including automated agents - via the World Wide Web.

I understand that once the Work is deposited, a citation to the Work will always remain visible, although the author retains the right to update the Work. Removal of the item can be made after discussion with SRI Open Access.

I agree as follows:

- that I have the authority of the authors to make this agreement, and to hereby give SRI Open Access the right to make available the Work in the way described above;
- that I have exercised reasonable care to ensure that the Work is original, and does not to the best of my knowledge infringe upon anyone's copyright.

Popularization and development of social type of tourism in Russia today is connected with the following factors: firstly, this segment of tourism market is essential for a huge number of people with limited financial and physical capacity; secondly, social tourism market provided in Russia in the period of "developed socialism", nowadays is completely destroyed, and therefore requires revival; thirdly, social tourism needs active. - Decree of the Government of the Russian Federation of April 4, 2004 No 158 "Issues of Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation"; - Decree of the Government of the Russian Federation of April 6, 2004 No 165 "Issues of Federal Agency for Healthcare and Social Development" The books in this Tourism Social Science Series (TSSSeries) are intended to systematically and cumulatively contribute to the formation, embodiment, and advancement of knowledge in the field of tourism. While the development and production of this book series is fashioned after the successful model of Annals of Tourism Research, the TSSSeries further aspires to assure each theme a comprehensiveness possible only in book-length academic treatment. Each volume in the series is intended to deal with a particular aspect of this increasingly important subject, thus to play a definitive role in enlarging and strengthening the foundation of knowledge in the field of tourism, and consequently to expand its frontiers into the new research and scholarship horizons ahead. It introduces social science disciplines to the reader and applies relevant theories to the understanding of tourism. Although each chapter addresses a particular social science discipline, the book includes extensive cross-referencing between the chapters to highlight the multidisciplinary nature of tourism research. A key theme of the book is how the economic and political structures of society influence the manifestation of tourism at a global level.
