

How I became a drug “smuggler”

My route to drug smuggling did not begin on a coca farm in Columbia or a dark alley in Cincinnati. I was not looking to score a vial of crack or an ounce of pot. I wasn't even looking for drugs for myself. No, my foray into the drug underground began, like that of Americans, in a doctor's office. Looking for affordable medication to treat infertility, I turned to a Mexican “connection.”

I am sure many of your patients—perhaps even your parents or grandparents—have traveled a similar journey in search of affordable prescription medications. Many Americans have been purchasing their drugs on the internet, buying them on trips out of the country, or doing without.

Barring hanging chads and Supreme Court theatrics, you already know the outcome of our 2004 presidential election. But I suspect the debate on healthcare coverage and drug costs has only begun to heat up. Whether the implementation of drug discount cards and the transition to a pharmacy benefit for Medicare recipients, drug importing, or pharmaceutical profits, the struggle for affordable medicines is only beginning to gain attention.

Following are pertinent issues from a recent day in the office:

- A young couple struggling with the cost of infertility treatments (alluded to earlier)—“an uncovered service” according to their insurance plan—wonders if a trip to Mexico is warranted
- An elder using essential medications for heart failure, coronary disease, hypertension, diabetes and depression, is confused by the discount plans and pays hundreds of dollars out-of-pocket each month
- A middle-aged executive out of a job because of corporate restructuring faces an astronomical bill for treating his hepatitis C.

Why is this happening? One reason is the influence of the drug industry. Marcia Angell, former editor-in-chief of NEJM, is masterful in telling the story in her recent book, The Truth About the Drug Companies: How They Deceive Us and What to Do About It. Dr Angell explores myths such as the industry's devotion to research, while revealing their artful manipulation of laws supposed to protect consumers and the promulgation of marketing under the guise of education. While occasionally strident, and overlooking the industry's accomplishments and the context of free-market competition, this book should be required reading in this year of Presidential promises.

Another reason is the inability of Congress to address the issues of comprehensive healthcare coverage for all that is affordable, portable, and accessible. Too often, patients face huge bills because of gaps in coverage, changes in employment, or convoluted requirements for reimbursement. It would appear neither the Democratic nor the Republican parties are willing

CONTINUED ON PAGE 900

EDITOR

Jeffrey L. Susman, MD,
University of Cincinnati

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

• Clinical Inquiries
James Stevermer, MD, MSPH,
University of Missouri, Columbia

• Applied Evidence
Cheryl A. Flynn, MD, MS, State University of New York, Syracuse

• Original Research
John Hickner, MD, MSc, University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine

• Photo Rounds
Richard P. Usatine, MD, University of Texas
Health Sciences Center at San Antonio

CONSULTING EDITOR

• Clinical Inquiries
Bernard Ewigman, MD, MSPH, University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine

ASSISTANT EDITORS

• Clinical Inquiries
M. Lee Chambliss, MD, MSPH, Moses Cone
Family Medicine Residency, Greensboro, NC

Mark R. Ellis, MD, MSPH, Cox Family
Practice Residency, Springfield, Mo

Charissa Fotinos, MD, University of Washington, Seattle

Kevin Y. Kane, MD, MSPH, University of Missouri, Columbia

Gary Kelsberg, MD, FAAFP, University of Washington, Renton

Jon O. Neher, MD, University of Washington,
Renton

M. Norman Oliver, MD, MA, University of Virginia, Charlottesville

Peter C. Smith, MD, University of Colorado
Health Sciences Center, Denver

Donald C. Spencer, MD, MBA, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Fred Tudiver, MD, East Tennessee State
University, Johnson City

Jan P. Vleck, MD, University of Washington,
Olympia

Reinventing Practice

Gary N. Fox, MD, St. Vincent Mercy
Medical Center, Toledo, Ohio

Practice Alert

Doug Campos-Outcalt, MD, MPA,
University of Arizona, Phoenix

Eric Henley, MD, MPH, University of Illinois, Rockford

Guideline Update

Keith B. Holten, MD, University of Cincinnati

Language of Evidence

Goutham Rao, MD, MPA, University of Pittsburgh

Family Medicine Grand Rounds

Audrey Paulman, MD, MMM, and Paul Paulman, University of Nebraska College of Medicine, Omaha

Supplements

Rick Ricer, MD, University of Cincinnati

EDITORIAL BOARD

Frederick Chen, MD, MPH, University of
Washington, Seattle

Larry Culpepper, MD, MPH, Boston
University Medical Center, Boston, Mass

John W. Ely, MD, MSPH, University of Iowa College of Medicine, Iowa City

Linda French, Michigan State University, East
Lansing

Theodore G. Ganiats, MD, University of California-San Diego Health Outcomes
Assessment Program, La Jolla, Calif

Paul Gordon, MD, University of Arizona,
Tucson

Caryl J. Heaton, DO, University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, Newark

Fred Miser, MD, MA, Ohio State University,
Columbus

Kevin Peterson, MD, MPH, University of Minnesota, St Paul

Kendra Schwartz, MD, MSPH, Wayne State
University, Detroit, Mich

Douglas R. Smucker, MD, MPH, Moses Cone
Family Medicine Residency, Greensboro, NC

Jack Westfall, MD, University of Cincinnati

Direct editorial information and inquiries to:

EDITORIAL OFFICE

Health Professions Building, Department of Family Medicine, PO Box 670582,
Cincinnati, OH 45267-0582. Telephone:
(513) 558-4021.

PUBLISHING OFFICES

Dowden Health Media, Inc.,
110 Summit Avenue, Montvale, NJ 07645.
Telephone: (201) 782-5735.
Fax: (201) 505-5890

Everyone was coached on how to talk to police and I made sure to never make a profit. If I ever got caught, I wanted to make it 100 percent clear to a jury that I wasn't smuggling for money. In the United States, there is jury nullification, meaning juries have a right to acquit a defendant even if they find them guilty of the charges. In essence, a jury has the right to make a political statement in trial. It would be hard to paint me as a drug kingpin, and with 72 percent of the Utah public supporting safe access to medical cannabis, I stood a good chance of finding a sympathetic jury. I also Smugglers have developed a variety of inventive methods to move drugs and other contraband across borders. "They actually put them in a military base because at first they had them in the regular airport, and the drug traffickers used to go in and take them back," he added. According to Radden Keefe, "Cartel operatives eventually [moved drugs] on their own 747s, which they could load with as much as 13 tons of cocaine." How I became a drug "smuggler". Authors: Jeffrey L Susman. J Fam Pract 2004 Nov;53(11):856, 900. Download full-text PDF. Source. November 2004. Publication Analysis. Top Keywords. drug "smuggler". 4. drug. 1. Member Articles. Ultraviolet surprise: Efficient soft x-ray high-harmonic generation in multiply ionized plasmas. Dimitar Popmintchev. Ethnophysiology and herbal treatments of intestinal worms in Dominica, West Indies.